ment at Hannibal. HANNIBAL, Mo., Aug. 29 .- At midnight Edward T. Tilbe shot and killed Henry Scott on the farm of C. M. Alger, two miles east of this city, in Pike county, Illinois. Tilbe was superinendent of the farm, and Scott and family were employed. Six weeks ago Tilbe discharged Scott and had him arrested and put in jail. Scott finally got bail and was released, and it was said that be threatened to kill Tilbe. Last night as the latter was returning home from a neighbor's house Scott shot at him from ambush. Tilbe immediately drew his revolver and fired two shots, killing Scott instantly. Tilbe immediately surrendered and was placed in jail to await the result of an inquest that is now being held. It is said that the trouble was over Scott's wife, whom Tilbe is alleged to have been paying attentions. Great excitement has been caused by the
